

Coffee for a cause

Dutch Bros. donates funds to Boys & Girls Club of the Redwoods

The Times-Standard

Dutch Bros. Coffee Eureka's annual "Buck for Kids" day will take place Friday, with the local drive-through coffee business donating $1 from every drink sold to the Boys & Girls Club of the Redwoods.

Boys & Girls Club of the Redwoods focuses on essential areas of development for youth ranging from ages 6 to 18 years old.

The club provides a safe environment for children to not only learn and play, but to also develop skills of citizenship and leadership.

The funds raised on Friday will directly benefit the club as it continues to be a positive influence in the lives of local youth by providing programs and activities that enhance their quality of life.

"Kids are our future," said Travis Boersma, Dutch Bros co-founder. "Investing in our kids and providing hope and a compelling future for them is monumental in my world."

Dutch Bros. Coffee locations in Eureka are locally owned and operated by Sean and Molly Pates. Dutch Bros.

Eureka pours thousands annually into local causes, including the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Redwoods, Food For People, the Breast and GYN Health Project, CASA and the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

"I love that Dutch Bros. gives me such a great way to give back to our community," Sean Pates said. "It's so much more than just a good cup of coffee." Eureka's Dutch Bros. locations are at 1108 Broadway and 430 N St.

"Kids are our future. Investing in our kids and providing hope and a compelling future for them is monumental in my world."

— Travis Boersma, Dutch Bros co-founder