

Rotarians honored

Representatives of six North Coast Rotary clubs were recently recognized as the Boys and Girls Club of the Redwoods hosted its annual "Bids for Kids" evening to raise funds for the club. This year, the Lance Madsen "Champion for Youth" Award was presented to Rotary clubs that have contributed to the renovation of the Eureka Teen Center. The Rotary Clubs of Eureka, Southwest Eureka, Old Town (Eureka), Arcata, Arcata Sunrise and Fortuna have provided material support, labor and funding for the project, which began last year and is projected to be completed in 2016. The fundraising evening, "Night of 4000 Stars," will provide funding for the club's three program sites, as well as the T-Ball, Junior Giants and Teen Court programs. Pictured from left are Dale Warmuth of Rotary Club of Eureka; Gregg Gardiner, past president of Rotary Club of Eureka; Mary Crumley, past president of Rotary Club of Southwest Eureka; Jay Bahner, president of Rotary Club of Eureka; Howard Stauffer, president of Arcata Sunrise Rotary Club; and CJ Ralph, president of Rotary Club of Arcata.